Ground Rules to be an Official Selection for RSFF14

- No application fee is required to submit a film for RSFF14.
- Films must be between 3-12 minutes in length (including credits).
- All films must complete the three-step checklist to be an Official Selection (detailed instructions are provided below the Ground Rules section):
  - Part 1: Vimeo Submission
    - Upload a copy of your film to Vimeo
  - Part 2: Marketing Materials
    - Submit a digital poster and stills for your film
  - Part 3: RSFF14 Official Submission Form
    - Fill out and submit the form
- Film submissions are open to all Pepperdine University Seaver College Undergraduate students,* regardless of major.
  1. All Pepperdine students involved must provide their CWID to verify enrollment as a current undergraduate student at Pepperdine University Seaver College.
  2. Each student will be limited to participating in a maximum of 3 submissions as above-the-line crew.
- All above-the-line crew (Producers, Writers, Directors, Directors of Photography, Editors) MUST be Pepperdine Undergraduate students.
  1. Any above-the-line crew not currently enrolled as an undergraduate student at Pepperdine University Seaver College will subject the film to disqualification.
- All other cast and crew including actors, scoring, production/set design may be graduate students and/or sourced from outside of Pepperdine.
  1. If outside talent is utilized in the production of your film, the RSFF team must be made aware of their involvement in the Official Submission Form for the purpose of award delegation.
- Any film revealed on social media (YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, public Vimeo, etc.) prior to the ReelStories Film Festival event will be disqualified as an Official Selection.
- Each film should have one primary contact (ie. Producer, or Director) who will be responsible for submitting all materials.

Three-Step Checklist to be an Official Selection:

Content

- ReelStories Film Festival strives to promote positive messages of diversity and inclusivity. Therefore, we encourage the submission of films that share unique perspectives and spark conversation. Through collaboration, we hope students may craft meaningful stories that inspire and impact their community.
- Out of consideration to your audience, please exercise sensitivity towards topics like:
  - mental health, addiction, race, gender, ethnicity, religion, sexuality
- RSFF will not accept film submissions that include profanity, nudity, sexually explicit content, or extreme violence.
- The Student Programming Board is a division of Pepperdine Student Activities; as such, ReelStories is a Pepperdine-sponsored event. All content displayed must not violate what Pepperdine deems appropriate or promote values contrary to the mission of Pepperdine University.

If doubtful about the appropriateness of your content, please contact the Executive Directors at rsff@pepperdine.edu with questions prior to submission.

What Happens After You Submit A Film?

Selection Process

- Selections for screening will be voted on by the ReelStories Selection Committee for the potential to become an Official Selection of RSFF14. They will make selections based on specific content such as: story, message, theme, score, lighting, cinematography, editing, acting, directing, etc. Official Selections will be passed on to the Standards Committee (comprised of Pepperdine University staff) for content review of proposed screening selections. All finalized selections will be submitted to the Judging Panel for award consideration.
- The Judging Panel shall consist of a third-party group of qualified individuals, separate from the RSFF14 Executive Directors.
- Student Activities staff reserves the authority to deem what is appropriate.
Decisions are final.

If your submission is accepted as an Official Selection for ReelStories Film Festival 14 2023, you will be notified via email as decisions are made. A hard copy of the film will be required, and details are provided below. All films that are not selected will also be notified via email.

\ Seaver undergraduate students graduating in Fall 2022 are eligible to submit a film for ReelStories Film Festival 14.*
